NUMB. 1427

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16. 1740.

№ 1425.

Yesterday arrived the Two Mails due from Holland.

LETTERS from Madrid of the 29th ult. N. S. say, 'tis reported that the late Duke of Ormond is shortly expected there from Avignon, to enter into the Service of the King of Spain; that some Troops are hiing towards the Frontiers of Portugal; that a Camp is going to be form'd near Malaga; and that Cardinal Gonzaga, who was formerly the Pope's Nuncio at Madrid, where he still resides, is to be plac'd at the Head of the Spanish Affairs: Which, however, seems to be only a Conjecture, founded on some late Private Conferences which he has had with the King. The Dutch Ambassador there has received an Answer to his Memorial, importing in Substance, 'That 'twas impossible as yet to return an Answer to some of the Articles of the last Resolution of the Republick: That the King had order'd 2 of the 5 Dutch Ships taken by the Spaniards, to be restor'd immediately; that the Restitution of 2 others must be put off for 8 Months, to give time for the Arrival of the necessary Vouchers from the West-Indies; but that as to the 5th, it was out of his Catholick Majesty's Power to restore it, forasmuch as it was declared Good Prize in the Indies 20 Years ago, and that the Sentence was given in pursuance thereof had been approved by the Court, and executed long since.

'Tis moreover said, that in the King's last Promotion of Officers, Brig. Don Will. Lascy was appointed Major-General, who is a Scotsman, and Brother to the Vice-Marshal who is in the Service of the Queen.

Letters from Rome of the 2d Instant, N. S. say, that the Pope's Domesticks thinking it proper to put him to Bed, he was so disturb'd by being mov'd about it, that he fainted, and had a Fit of Vomiting, but was however recover'd by the Use of Medicines; tho' his great Age and the Severity of the Weather make his Life very dubious. And that the last Day of the old Year being the Birth-day of the Chevalier de St. George's Eldest Son, he had a considerable Levee of the chief Nobility at his Apartments on that Occasion.

On the 29th ult. the Chevalier entertained the Lord Cardinal de Tencin, his Creature, at Dinner and Days before a rich Jew was baptised at Rome, who, they say, was a Rabbi of one of the Synagogues of Amsterdam. Cardinal Alberoni is arriv'd there, to justify his Conduct as to the Affair of the Republick of San Marino; the Cardinal Marino being appointed Legate of Ravenna in his Room.

Those from Vienna of the 9th N. S. say, that when Count Uhlefeldt goes Ambassador to Constantinople, he is to have no less than 300 Persons in his Train, and that the Loss of the Imperialists during the last War with the Turks, is computed at 36000 Men. The Emperor has approv'd of the Plan for the Reduction of his Army from 160000 to 130000 Men. The Prince of Saxe-Hilburghausen is in so much Favour at the Court, that 'tis thought he will soon be raised to the Dignities of the late Prince Eugene. It is farther surmis'd, that some new Difficulties are started to the Prejudice of Count Seckendorf. And, 'tis said, that by the Emperor's Order the Inhabitants of the Dutchies of Parma and Placentia are disarm'd.

Those of the 13th from Francfort say, that the Elector of Mentz, who had undertaken to furnish the King of France with Horses, have Orders to have 2000 of them ready by the End of March, of which 1000 are to be for the Cavalry, 3000 for Dragoons, and 1500 for the Hussars.

Letters of the 15th from Hamburgh say, they had Advice by the last Post from Copenhagen, that the Danish Troops in the Pay of Great Britain, had received Orders to march to replace those of the Electorate of Hanover that were to be employ'd elsewhere; They add, that a Treaty is on foot for 6000 more.

According to their freshest Letters from Constantinople, Kouli Kan's Demand of a Passport for his Pilgrimage to Mecca, is look'd upon as nothing less than a Design to pick a Quarrel with the Porte upon their Refusal, which is what he must naturally expect. They add, there has been an Insurrection lately at Constantinople, excited by some Persons of Distinction, Enemies to the Grand Vizier, who have been apprehended, and committed Prisoners to the Seven Towers. It seems, that when the Grand Seignior went to pay his Reverence to Mahomet's Standard in the Grand Vizier's Camp, the latter fell at his Feet, and said to him, Your Sublime Highness order'd me not to appear before Your Glorious Face till I had re taken Belgrade. I have perform'd what you commanded; but if nevertheless any Part of my Behaviour has given you Displeasure, the Life of your Slave is now at your Disposal. The Grand Seignior return'd him Answer, That he was very well satisfy'd with the Success of the last Campaign, and that he would support him against all his Enemies.

The Turks have entirely demolished the Fortifications of Meadia. The Russians have not yet evacuated Chocsim.
